1 constructive trust and accounting, an award of attorneys' fees and costs; and such
2 additional relief as this Court deems appropriate.

4 Parties

5 2. Plaintiff, Microsoft Corporation, is a Washington corporation, with its 6 principal place of business in Redmond, Washington.

7 3. Defendant Shahzad Shahnawad is Pakistani resident, and is the owner and 8 operator of the Internet domain name <testking.com> as well as 88 additional domain
9 names identified in Appendix A to this Complaint. At those domains, defendants operate
10 websites (the "Infringing Websites") that are directly involved in the unlawful copying
11 and distribution of Microsoft's copyrighted works.

12 4. Defendant Ove Lundberg is a Swedish resident. Lundberg is the purported 13 registrant, and technical contact, for the Internet domain name <testking.com> as well as 14 for many of the additional domain names identified in Appendix A to this complaint.
15 Lundberg is involved in the operation of the Infringing Websites and his duties include,
16 among other things, customer service.

17 5. Defendant Certification Trendz, Ltd. ("Certification Trendz"), is a 18 company formed in the United Kingdom. Microsoft is informed and believes that 19 defendant Certification Trendz is wholly owned and operated by defendant Shahnawad,
20 and is simply a shell corporation through which defendant Shahnawad processes payments
21 for his illegal activities and transfers funds to Pakistan. Certification Trendz purports to 22 be the owner of some of the domain names identified in Appendix A, and purports to be 23 the operator of some of the Infringing Websites.

24 6. Microsoft is unaware of the true names and capacities of defendants sued
25 herein as John Does 4-20, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious

1 names. Microsoft will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities
2 when ascertained. Microsoft is informed and believes and therefore alleges that each of 3 the fictitiously named defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences
4 herein alleged, and that Microsoft's injuries as herein alleged were proximately caused by 5 such defendants. These fictitiously named defendants, along with the two aforementioned
6 defendants, are herein referred to collectively as "defendants."

7         7. The actions alleged herein to have been undertaken by the defendants were 8 undertaken by each defendant individually, were actions that each defendant caused to 9 occur, were actions that each defendant authorized, controlled, directed, or had the ability
10 to authorize, control or direct, and/or were actions each defendant assisted, participated in,
11 or otherwise encouraged, and are actions for which each defendant is liable. Each
12 defendant aided and abetted the actions of the defendants set forth below, in that each 13 defendant had knowledge of those actions, provided assistance and benefited from those 14 actions, in whole or in part. Each of the defendants was the agent of each of the 15 remaining defendants, and in doing the things hereinafter alleged, was acting within the 16 course and scope of such agency and with the permission and consent of other defendants.

17                     Jurisdiction and Venue

18         8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Microsoft's claims for 19 copyright infringement and related claims pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 501, and 28 U.S.C.
20 § 1331, 1332 and 1338(a).

21         9. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Microsoft's claims arising
22 under the laws of Washington pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) because the claims are so
23 related to Microsoft's claims under federal law that they form part of the same case or 24 controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.
25

1           10. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the defendants, all of whom have
2 conducted business activities in, and directed to, Washington, are primary participants in
3 tortious acts in, and directed to, Washington, and have used personal property in the state.
4 Defendants have purposely availed themselves of the opportunity to conduct commercial
5 activities in this forum. Defendants have registered domain names in Washington.
6 Additionally, defendants have consented to jurisdiction in this forum.

7           11. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a
8 substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred. Among other 9 things, the infringing materials that are the subject of this litigation were offered for 10 distribution in this District and the claims alleged in this action arose in this District. In 11 addition, venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(d).

12                           Factual Allegations Common to All Claims

13           12. Microsoft is in the business of, among other things, certifying the 14 competency of individuals engaged in various fields of the information technology
15 industry (hereinafter, "Certification Programs").

16           13. The purpose of Microsoft's Certification Programs are: (1) to set an 17 industry wide, worldwide recognized standard of basic competency levels in various fields
18 of the information technology industry; (2) to maximize efficiency in recruiting, hiring,
19 training, and promoting employees; (3) to help fill the needs of today's information
20 technology workforce by providing individuals with skills in demand; (4) to provide 21 industry educators with the standards necessary to prepare individuals to meet the job
22 skills of today.

23           14. In order to become certified under any of Microsoft's various Certification
24 Programs, a candidate must pass the required Certification Exam(s). Microsoft owns and 25 offers as part of its certification programs, among other things, the fifty-five (55)

1 certification exams identified in Appendix B to this Complaint. Each Certification Exam
2 is an original work of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression by Microsoft.

3 15. Microsoft also protects its Certification Exams by requiring its certified
4 professionals to agree to a Non-Disclosure Agreement. Students who pass the necessary
5 Certification Exams are eligible to designate themselves as Microsoft Certified
6 Professionals, or “MCPs”. Before an individual may use the MCP designation, he or she 7 must agree to the Microsoft Certified Professional Program Agreement (MCPPA), which 8 identifies the Certification Exams as Microsoft’s trade secrets and prohibits, among other 9 things, unauthorized disclosure or distribution of Certification Exam materials. (The non-
10 disclosure portion of the MCPPA is attached to Microsoft’s Complaint as Exhibit 1 and 11 incorporated herein by reference).

12 16. Microsoft further acted to protect its Certification Exams by utilizing a
13 secure procedure to register its copyrights in its various Certification Exams. Microsoft’s
14 applications comply with the requirements of the Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. §101, et seq.).

15 17. The copyright in each of the exams identified in Appendix B was 16 registered, using the “secure” filing procedure, with the United States Copyright Office in 17 compliance with the Copyright Revision Act of 1976 (17. U.S.C. §101, et seq.) and 18 Copyright Office Regulations. True and correct copies of the certificates of registration
19 for each of the exams identified in Appendix B are attached to this Complaint as Exhibits
20 2-56 and incorporated herein by reference.

21 18. Microsoft protects its Certification Exams by utilizing technological 22 measures such as password protection and “click through” licenses to effectively control 23 access to the exams, granting access to the exams only to those individuals authorized by 24 Microsoft. These technological measures effectively protect Microsoft’s exclusive right
25 of reproduction and distribution of the exams.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Copyright Infringement 17 U.S.C. § 501, *et seq.
(All Defendants)

24. Plaintiff realleges and reincorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 23 of this Complaint as set forth above.

25. Microsoft is the author, creator, and owner of the right, title and interest in various copyrighted Certification Exams registered with the United States Copyright Office. (See Exhibits 2-56, supra).

26. Defendants willfully infringed Microsoft's copyrights by copying and distributing, without any authorization from Microsoft, infringing copies of the Certification Exams and/or making other infringing use of the Certification Exams in the United States of America.

27. Microsoft never authorized the defendants to copy or duplicate or license any of the Certification Exams, either in whole or in part, or to offer for sale or sell, or offer access to, any copies of its Certification Exams or individual test questions or answers appearing thereon.

28. As a result of the foregoing activities, defendants are liable to Microsoft for willful infringement under 17 U.S.C. §501, et seq.

29. Microsoft has suffered and will continue to suffer, substantial and irreparable damage to its business reputation and goodwill, as well as losses in an amount in excess of $75,000, but not yet fully ascertained, and which will be further determined according to proof. In addition to Microsoft's actual damages, Microsoft is entitled pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504, to receive the profits made by defendants from their wrongful acts. In the alternative, Microsoft is entitled to statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). These statutory damages should be enhanced in accordance with 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2) due to the defendants' willful conduct.

1           30.     Microsoft has no adequate remedy at law for defendants' wrongful conduct
2 in that: (1) Microsoft's copyrights are a unique and valuable property that have no readily
3 determinable market value; (2) the infringement by defendants constitutes interference
4 with Microsoft's goodwill and customer relations; and (3) defendants' wrongful conduct
5 and the damage resulting therefrom is continuing. Therefore, Microsoft is entitled to 6 injunctive relief and a freezing of the Domain names listed in Appendix A pursuant to,
7 among other things, 17 U.S.C. § 502 and to an Order impounding all infringing materials
8 under 17 U.S.C. § 503 and § 509(a).

9           31.     Microsoft is also entitled to recover its attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 10 17 U.S.C. § 505.

12                               SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
13                               (Imposition of Constructive Trust Upon Illegal Profits,
14                               Against All Defendants)

15           32.     Microsoft realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every
16 allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 31 above.

17           33.     By reason of the acts set forth herein, defendants have engaged in 18 deceptive, fraudulent, and wrongful conduct in publishing, disseminating, and selling
19 copyrighted material appearing in confidential copyrighted Microsoft Certification Exams.

20           34.     By virtue of defendants' wrongful acts and conduct, defendants have 21 illegally received money and profits that rightfully belong to Microsoft.

22           35.     Microsoft is also entitled, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), to recover all
23 profits of defendants that are attributable to their acts of infringement or violations
24 thereof.

25           36.     Microsoft is not presently aware of where defendants may have deposited all of their illegal profits from their wrongful acts against Microsoft. Microsoft believes

Defendants' Unlawful Acts

19. Defendants own and manage the Internet domain names identified in Appendix A. At these domains, among others, defendants have created, own and operate web sites through which defendants offer for sale “training materials” allegedly designed to prepare students to successfully pass Microsoft Certification Exams. The domain <testking.com> is the most prominent and well-known of defendants’ websites.

20. Microsoft is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the Microsoft Certification Exam “training materials” defendants sell through Testking.com and the other Infringing Websites contain exam questions and answers that are either identical or substantially similar to Microsoft’s copyrighted exam questions and answers. Microsoft has not licensed or authorized defendants to copy or distribute its copyrighted exam content.

21. Defendants, through their Infringing Websites (including <testking.com>) are advertising and distributing, without authorization from Microsoft, copies of the Certification Exams and/or making other infringing uses of the Certification Exams.

22. In sum, defendants have provided and are providing, without permission or license from Microsoft, the original copyrighted exam content from Microsoft Certification Exams to Microsoft Certification Candidates via the Infringing Websites.

23. Defendants have utilized a number of techniques to conceal their activities with respect to all of their websites, including testking.com. The techniques defendants have used to conceal their activities include but are not necessarily limited to private registration of their domain names and use of proxies and/or false identities to register their domain names.

that defendants illegal profits, whether in the form of bank accounts, or in the form of real or personal property, will eventually be traced.

37. As a result of the conduct of defendants as alleged herein, Microsoft is entitled to the imposition of a constructive trust on the illegal profits of the defendants for the benefit of Microsoft.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION (Accounting Against All Defendants)

38. Microsoft realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 37 above.

39. Microsoft is entitled, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), to recover all profits of defendants that are attributable to their acts of infringement.

40. Microsoft is entitled, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b) and (c) to actual or statutory damages sustained by virtue of defendants' acts of infringement.

41. The amount of money due from defendants to Microsoft is unknown to Microsoft and cannot be ascertained without a detailed accounting of the precise quantity of infringing material offered for distribution, display and distributed, displayed, or sold by the defendants on the Infringing Websites, or the number of individuals that gained access to defendants' "preparation" materials.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Unfair Business Practices - RCW § 19.86.090, Against All Defendants)

42. Microsoft realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 41 above.

43. Defendants' use of Microsoft intellectual property to promote, market, or sell its products, services and websites constitutes an Unfair Business Practice pursuant to RCW § 19.86.010 et seq. Defendants' activities constitute an unfair or deceptive practice

1 occurring in trade or commerce that impacts the public interest and has caused injury to
2 Microsoft. Defendants' unfair business practice has caused and will continue to cause
3 damage to Microsoft, and is causing irreparable harm to Microsoft for which there is no
4 adequate remedy at law.

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Conversion, Against All Defendants)

7 44. Microsoft realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every
8 allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 42 above.

9 45. Defendants have willfully interfered with and converted Microsoft's
10 personal property, without lawful justification, as a result of which Microsoft has been 11 deprived of possession and use of its property.

12 46. As a result of Defendants' actions, Microsoft has been damaged in an 13 amount to be proven at trial.

14
15 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Unjust Enrichment,
16 Against All Defendants)

17 47. Microsoft realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every
18 allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 45 above.

19 48. As a result of the conduct described above, defendants have been and will 20 be unjustly enriched at the expense of Microsoft. Specifically, defendants' unlawful and 21 unfair acts as described above have enabled defendants to benefit from the sale of 22 Microsoft intellectual property on the Infringing Websites, unjustly enriching defendants
23 at an amount to be proven at trial.

24 49. Defendants should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.
25

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Microsoft respectfully requests judgment as follows:

1. That the Court enter judgment against defendants that they have willfully infringed Microsoft's rights to the copyrighted Certification Exams identified in Appendix B under 17 U.S.C. § 501;

2. That the Court issue temporary and permanent injunctive relief against the defendants and that defendants, their officers, agents, representatives, servants, employees, attorneys, successors and assigns, and all others in active concert or participation with defendants be enjoined and restrained from:

4. That the Court enter an Order requiring that the domain name <testking.com> and the domain names for the other Infringing Websites be transferred to Microsoft.

1           5.       That the Court enter an Order declaring that defendants hold in trust, as 2 constructive trustees for the benefit of Microsoft, their illegal profits gained from the 3 distribution of infringing copies of Microsoft Certification Exams, and requiring
4 defendants to provide Microsoft with a full and complete accounting of all amounts due
5 and owing to Microsoft as a result of defendants' infringing activities.

6           6.       That the Court enter an Order instructing defendants, jointly and severally,
7 to pay Microsoft's general, special, actual and statutory damages, including but not

This is a legal agreement between you and MICROSOFT CORPORATION ("Microsoft"), a Washington corporation whose address is One Microsoft Way, Redmond, WA 98052-6399. By breaking the seal on the sealed Microsoft Certified Professional Certificate, you are agreeing to be bound by the terms of this Microsoft Certified Professional Program Agreement (the "Agreement"). The terms of the Agreement include the Microsoft Certified Professional Program Logo Guidelines (the "Logo Guidelines") attached hereto and posted online at www.microsoft.com/traincert/ (the "Microsoft Training and Certification Public Web site"). If you do not agree to the terms of this Agreement (including the Logo Guidelines), promptly return the unopened Certification Welcome Kit to Microsoft at the notice address below. The terms of this Agreement shall remain in force and apply to any Microsoft Certified Professional Designations for which you have attained certification, including any of those listed below.

1. DEFINITIONS

The following terms shall have these defined meanings for the purposes of this Agreement:

(a) "Microsoft Certified Professional Program" ("MCP Program") shall mean the certification program described in this Agreement.

(b) "Microsoft Certified Professional" ("MCP") shall mean an individual who has complied with the certification requirements set by the MCP Program (including, but not limited to, satisfactorily passing the requisite "Microsoft Certified Professional Examinations"), and who, by maintaining current certification as an MCP, is entitled to use one or more of the MCP Designations in accordance with this Agreement.

3. CERTIFICATION

(a) OBTAINING CERTIFICATION. To obtain certification in any of the applicable MCP Designations, you must have successfully complied with the initial certification requirements for that Designation. Certification requirements are available online on the Microsoft Training and Certification Web site, or available from Microsoft at the notice address below. By sending you the Certification Welcome Kit that accompanies this Agreement, Microsoft confirms that, according to its records, you have complied with the initial certification requirements for the applicable MCP Designation(s) indicated in the Certification Welcome Kit.

(b) MAINTAINING CERTIFICATION. To maintain your certification(s), you must comply with any and all applicable continuing certification requirements specified by Microsoft from time to time. You acknowledge and agree that Microsoft may, at its sole discretion, change the certification requirements (both initial and continuing), MCP Designations, and MCP Logos at any time. Microsoft will notify you by e-mail to the e-mail address you provide to Microsoft, of any changes in certification requirements for any certifications you hold. You will be allowed six (6) full calendar months from the date Microsoft sends you its e-mail notice in which to comply with any such changed certification requirements. Once granted, your certification(s) will remain valid if you stay in compliance with all applicable continuing certification requirements. Failure to comply with all applicable continuing certification requirements will result in termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.

(c) NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT. All Microsoft certification exams, including the content and wording of exam questions, constitute confidential Microsoft information protected by trade secret law. Anyone obtaining access to MCP exams is obligated to maintain the confidentiality of this information. If an individual is caught violating the Non-Disclosure Agreement to which all examinees must agree before beginning an MCP exam, the candidate will be permanently ineligible for any Microsoft certification. The following shows the text of this agreement:

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT AND GENERAL TERMS OF USE FOR EXAMS DEVELOPED FOR THE MICROSOFT CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL PROGRAM

This exam is Microsoft confidential and is protected by trade secret law. It is made available to you, the examinee, solely for the purpose of becoming certified in the technical area referenced in the title of this exam. You are expressly prohibited from disclosing, publishing, reproducing, or transmitting this exam, in whole or in part, in any form or by any means, verbal or written, electronic or mechanical, for any purpose, without the prior express written permission of Microsoft Corporation. If you, the examinee, fail to comply with the above regulations you shall be permanently ineligible for any further certification. Furthermore, you, the examinee, shall also be decertified from the Microsoft Certified Professional Program and all current certifications associated with it.

4. AUTHORIZATION TO USE MCP DESIGNATIONS AND LOGOS

Subject to and expressly conditioned upon compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon your successful completion of the initial certification requirements, and for so long as you remain in compliance with all applicable continuing certification requirements, Microsoft hereby authorizes you to use the MCP Designation(s) for which you have obtained certification, as indicated in the Certification Welcome Kit accompanying this Agreement, and to use any corresponding MCP Logo according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the Logo Guidelines attached hereto. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved by Microsoft. You acknowledge Microsoft's sole ownership of the MCP logos and Designations, and that nothing in this Agreement, or in your performance as an MCP, or that might otherwise be implied by law, shall operate to give you any right, title or interest in the MCP Designations or Logos, other than the authorization specifically granted herein. You may not use or reproduce the Logos in any manner whatsoever other than as described herein, in the Logo Guidelines, and/or
